ST. TERESA'S MISSION STATEMENT

As members of St. Teresa's Parish we fulfill our baptismal commitment by being the hands and heart of Christ in our world.

We achieve this commitment by accepting the human dignity of all persons, and by advocating for and serving those oppressed in our society.

The community of St. Teresa's finds its strength to fulfill this through participation in the Eucharist, prayer, learning the building of relationships, and action for Justice.

WELCOMING WEEKEND

Welcome to all Parishioners, guests and newcomers at St. Teresa's. This weekend we celebrate our monthly "Welcome" Masses. You are always warmly welcome, but the first Saturday and Sunday of each month we make a special point of spending time to get to know one another. If you are here early and reading your bulletin, please take a moment to say hello to someone sitting close by, particularly if you have not met before. Join us after 10:00am Mass on Sunday for refreshments and fellowship.

In honor of Independence Day, the Parish Office will be closed on Monday, July 4th. Please have a safe & happy holiday.

THANK YOU

Our celebration of the confirmation of five of our young parishioners was a wonderful gathering of the parish community. Everyone outdid themselves, from the parishioners who helped with music & liturgy to those who contributed to make the reception afterward such a success by bringing delicious food, setting up the hall, serving the food and beverages and helping with clean-up. For now, know that I am deeply appreciative of everyone who had anything to do with planning and providing for this celebration.

OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL

Please join us at 9:00am on Saturday, July 16th as we celebrate a Mass dedicated to Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Our Lady of Mount Carmel is the title given to the Blessed Virgin Mary, in her role as patroness of the Carmelite Order. The Carmelites see in the Blessed Virgin Mary a perfect model of the interior life of prayer and contemplation to which Carmelites aspire, a model of virtue, as well as the person who was closest in life to Jesus Christ. She is seen as the one who points Christians most surely to Christ, saying to all what she says to the servants at the wedding at Cana, "Do whatever he (Jesus) tells you." Carmelites look to Mary as spiritually their mother and sister.

FAITH FORMATION/GOOD SHEPHERD

Parents and Guardians will soon be receiving materials and information about our programs for next year. Our catechists and pastoral staff have been working on some program modifications to increase our parent involvement and address some of the requests of our Archdiocese. Families that have been involved in our programs will be receiving emails with updates and families who are new to our programs will receive materials as they register. Thank you for your patience as we move ahead.

WEEKEND COLLECTION June 25 & 26

First Collection $ 1,480

God of Hosts -vs- God of Power and Might

When the new translation of the Roman Missal goes into effect on November 27th, one of the more subtle changes takes place in the Sanctus. The current text reads, "Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of Power and Might." The new translation is, "Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of Hosts" (which is a more literal translation of Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus Dominus Deus Sabaoth). Why the change and what's the difference?

Perhaps we can glean an insight into this text if we examine a passage of scripture surrounding the birth of Jesus. In the Gospel of Luke – when an angel announces to shepherds the birth of Jesus – we find the following passage (Lk 2:13-14):

"Suddenly, there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, 'Glory to God in high heaven, peace on earth to those on whom his favor rests.'"

Notice that the word host refers to a group that is praising God. The Greek word sabaoth – translated as host – literally means armies or a great mass of people or angels. I suspect that when we first moved to an English translation some four decades ago, the translators wanted to steer away from the militant implications of sabaoth; hence, the translation to Lord God of Power and Might.

What is important here is to note that sabaoth or host refers to a group, and the new translation emphasizes that the Lord God is the ruler who presides, rules, or reigns over this group. Lord God of Hosts says something about the relationship between God and the group, a relationship that is akin to a king and his subjects.

In the present translation, God of Power and Might says nothing about either the group or the relationship between God and this group. Instead, Power and Might describes characteristics or attributes of God. The current text tells us that God is powerful and mighty, but says nothing about God "ruling" over anyone. In this light, the new translation is quite different from what we are using now.

We may disagree and debate over the "militancy" of the new text, but the fact remains that the new translation is a more faithful rendition of the text Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus Dominus Deus Sabaoth, a text that has been used for centuries prior to its translation into the vernacular following the Second Vatican Council.

The new translation of the Roman Missal goes into effect on the First Sunday of Advent. This is one in a series of bulletin articles which both examine parts of the Mass and focus on elements of the new translation.
